Mr. P.

I have enjoyed being in your classes and I'll always remember you. You've given me so many intangible "assets" I take with me on my way through life. Some you have made music live and it has become an integral part of my life for if I were taken from me I would not be a total person. I take so many cherished memories with me as I leave. You have not only been a teacher to me but also a friend and a true inspiration. It is teachers like you who have influenced and now I have decided I make teaching my career. I do hope I will as you do. I shall be so happy to have you over in me. I hope you can return some of it to the children.

Mr. Pallante
How can I thank you for all those music lessons you suffered through with me. They really helped me and truly appreciated them. I hope you have a great choir next year and an even better girl team (which is more important). Thank you for everything - you were more than just a teacher to me - you were a friend and I can truly say that I will miss you the most among my high school teachers. Carol Hoffman

Mr. Pallante -
What can I say except, that I sure am sorry and sad about us not going to state. We did our best for our favorite teacher. You've become a real friend.... I sure do look up to you and I'm sure I always will. Best of luck with the choir next year. If they love you as much as we do, they can't go wrong.

Remember me to your faithful girl tenor Always -

Mary

Mr. Pullante:
You'd like to say that class music is the most exciting area of the musical class. In all these years I've known you, you've given me the most of music and the way
you. I'll never forget
P.S. Always.
Do you ever expect
me to grow
time to time.

Expressions
display an aspect of thought or feeling.
They can be revealed in a myriad of ways.

In solitude
or in the midst
of a crowd,
expressions are
ever present
portraying our
innermost thoughts
to the people
around us.

Concentration:
the form of expression most evident in a scholastic atmosphere.

"The face
is a book
where men may read strange
matters."

—Shakespeare

Expressions

convey

sentiment,

interest,

boredom,

confidence,

joy,

sorrow,

exuberance,

concentration,

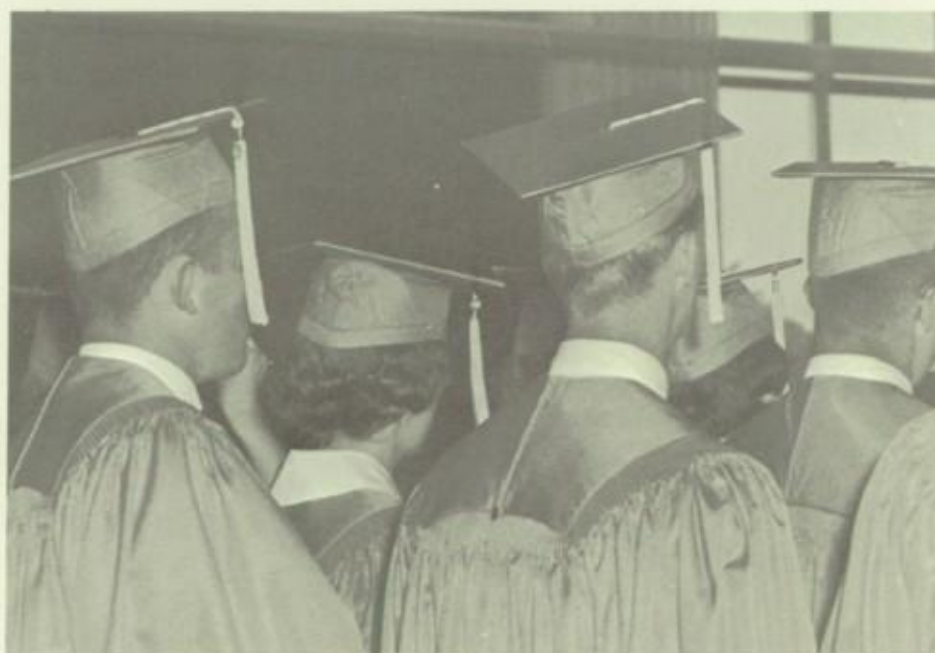

the true inner self.

Expression
may change
a mind or sustain a mood.
Thoughts
and opinions
are often relayed by
a glance,
a smile, or a gesture.

South Cagers Drop Orange by 64 to 57

Five South basketballers scored in double figures last night as the Rebels won their sixth victory of the season dumping Orange, 64-57. The loss was Orange's first in six outings.

Pat Stillisano led the South scoring with 18 points, followed by Larry Kinsman with 12 points and Rick Hart with a dozen counters. Andy Meyer scored 11 counters and Bill

South High's Rebels held its share of the Freeway Cage first place last night by rolling over the Riverside Bucs 75-44.

Pat Stillisano and Andy Meyer were the workhorses for the Rebels, scoring 20 points each.

Meyer also tied with teammate Rick Hart for rebounding honors with 19 grabs.

Stillisano's output was his second highest of the season. Meyer's output was his best by six points.

Bill Davis tallied a dozen counters for the Rebels and led the South forces, as usual, as playmaker.

The Beavers posted two players in double figures. Ernie Anderson was high point man for Riverside with 13 counters. Dan Anderson was second with 12 points.

The Rebels led from the mid-way of the first period in the night.

Meyer tallied eight points in a second period as the Rebels scored Riverside 18-12 and took a 34-27 halftime lead.

The Beavers managed only eight points in South's 21 in the third period as Davis carried eight points.

The Rebels added 26 points to its scoreboard in the final quarter while Riverside knocked it only nine.

South connected on 38.2 per cent of its field goal attempts, as the Rebels sunk 21 of 31 attempts.

Riverside shot 28 per cent, completing 15 of 54 attempts.

Three returning lettermen, all seniors, expect to bolster South High's all-time record in the 1964-65 basketball season at Chagrin Falls.

The returning monogrammers include: Rick Hart, Stillisano, and Andy Meyer, who are the tallest, at 6-1, 6-0, and 5-11, respectively.

Rebels in Third Victory

By ALLAN TOOMEY

South High's unbeaten Rebels continued to look impressive as they rolled to a 20-8 victory over Kenton.

The Bombers joined Chagrin and Chagrin Falls on the Rebels' victory list although it took more than half a game to get on the scoreboard.

South got within the 15-yard line twice in the first half but could not score. South dominated play in the first quarter, setting the hall for the

The fundamental purpose of South High School is to educate its students in a way that will benefit each one. The primary concern of our faculty is to insure that this purpose will be achieved. Our faculty not only endeavors to instill in the pupils knowledge in the form of facts, but also tries to stimulate a desire to seek knowledge through individual effort. The challenge to engage in independent study is found in all classes. Under the guidance of an understanding and interested group of teachers and administrators, the student body of South continues to reach for high plateaus of achievement.

Mr. P-

I can't thank you enough for making me realize the wonderful powers in music. I am truly going to miss you and music ap. I got so much out of knowing the year. I hope the choir goes to state next year. I wish everyone could get the wonderful feeling I got from the Propounders. Best of everything to you always, Norma Fisher

Mr. P-

You and Choir and Madrigal are my first loves at South. Thanks for teaching me so much. We're going to get a "1" next year. Have fun on your island. Sue Treadwell '66'

Mr. P

You're going to be the only one I'm really going to miss. I'm sorry for all the comotion I caused but that's just the way I am. You're a fabulous director and an even better person.

Thank you for remembering when I was in the hospital and helping me with my problems.

Thank you so much for everything your first Soprano!

Barb (Betty)

Mr. P-

To my favorite teacher I'll never had. I'm surely going to miss you on the class of 65. You think you're going to miss me and remember only the good times and not the bad. We go all times but I don't miss you very much but I don't worry well be back to see you every chance we get. Always

Mr. P.

May all your dreams for next years choir come true. I'll miss you really. You're really a fabulous teacher & person! As always, Donna Kifer '65

Mr. P-

You're my favorite teacher of all - the Greatest. I'm sorry we couldn't have given you your dream of going to state, but that's the way it goes. You've made my year complete at South. I'll always remember your smiles and eyes when we sing right. I'll be back to see you go to state next year. Roxanne Rabe

Thank's alot to a fine golf coach
